

FEEFHS News

The Foundation for East European Family History Studies
June 2022 E-Newsletter

Bremen Will Books 1500-1899 Online

The Genealogy Society of Bremen, Die Maus, has published digitized copies of will books from Bremen for 1500-1899. 105 books scanned from microfilm are available for viewing and an additional 8 books are being scanned from the originals. Die Maus has previously indexed these will books, so you can search them by name and then click to view the originals.

Die Maus website also has data collections for other records of Bremen, including emigration, citizenship, civil registration, church records, city directories, gravestones, tax records, Ortsfamilienbücher (town lineage books), and more. Many Central and East European emigrants left from Bremen. Although, most of the Bremen passenger lists were document emigrants during their time in Bremen.

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

FEEFHS 2022 Conference Early-Bird Registration Open for a Limited Time

Early-bird registration is now open for the 2022 FEEFHS Virtual Conference, July 25-29, 2022.

Come and learn about Slavic, Germanic, and other aspects of East European Genealogy!

The program will feature tracks in research in the former Austro-Hungarian Empire (including Czech, Slovak, etc.), German Empire, Poland, and the Russian Empire (including Ukraine, Belarus, and Baltic Countries) as well as classes on DNA Research, Jewish, Germans from Eastern Europe, and more.

The main conference will be Wednesday-Friday, July 27-29, consisting of three days of live instruction online. The classes will also be recorded and available for on-demand viewing through the remainder of 2022. There will be opportunities for connecting with speakers and other attendees through virtual consultations and a virtual lobby/lounge. Early bird registration is $150 (discounted from $200) for the full three days and on-demand recordings.

Preconference workshops will be offered Monday and Tuesday, July 25-26 for an additional $70. You will need to register for the full conference before adding workshops. Workshops will be presented live and recordings will be available to those who register for the workshops. There will be individual workshops on reading documents including two German workshops, one Hebrew, one Latin, and one Russian.

You can see the list of conference topics and speakers on FEEFHS.org. A more complete program with specific times is coming soon.

SubscribePast IssuesTranslate ▼

Early-bird registration ends June 30th. To register, you will first need to log in to your FEEFHS account or create a new free account. (Links found on the left of the registration page.)

We hope to have you join us in later this year for help in discovering your Central and East European ancestors!

Czech Census Records Online

FamilySearch has censuses and inhabitant registers for Czechia in the database Czech Republic Censuses and Inhabitant Registers. The collection is not yet indexed, but you may browse the nearly 5 million images in the collection by place and time period. Many of the records are from the 1921 census of Czechoslovakia, while other records date from as early as 1800 and as late as 1990. Availability varies by place. The collection includes records from Northern Bohemia from the regional archive of Litoměřice, for Eastern Bohemia from the district archive of Trutnov, for Southern Bohemia from the regional archive of Třeboň, for Southern Moravia from the regional archive in Brno, and for Northern Moravia and Silesia from the regional archive of Opava. It also includes images and indexed records for the Zámorsk area taken from the Zámorsk Archive.

If you have suggestions for content to share in the newsletter, please contact us.

Subscribe

Past Issues

Translate ▼

Copyright © 2022 Foundation for East European Family History Studies, All rights reserved.
unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

